

BIG SA

Aut

VOL. X. NO. 21.

LOUISA, LAWRENCE CO.

NEWS ITEMS.

Atlanta, Ga., is in the throes of a Lexow investigation.

Indianapolis bakers will reduce the price of bread from five cents to three cents.

At Gallipoli, O., Silverman, Levi & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, donated one hundred loads of coal to the poor of that city.

Wm. L. Reed, aged 70 years, one of the wealthiest citizens of Danville, Ky., died Wednesday at Orlando, Fla., of heart disease.

The Kearney national bank, of Kearney, Neb., which suspended payment December 15, 1894, has been permitted to resume business.

At Gallipoli, O., Abraham Jeffers, veteran of the Thirty-sixth O. V. I., familiarly known as "Uncle Abe," died at the age of 80 years.

Ex-County Commissioner Joseph H. Blake, a well-known democratic lawyer, died in Terre Haute, Ind. He carried $25,000 life insurance.

Among the appointments to the Military academy just made are: Albert M. McClure, Humphrey, Ky.; Frank W. Cooley, alternate, Williamsburg, Ky.

At Elkhart, Ind., Thomas J. Beck with shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide because she went to a church entertainment against his wishes.

Hon. Senator Tasse, Canadian commissioner to the Chicago World's fair, and an ex-member of parliament, died at Montreal, Thursday, after a long illness.

Joseph Vernon Whitaker, a veteran of the civil war in the United States and formerly attached to the staff of a Philadelphia newspaper, is dead in London.

Representative McNary has introduced in the house a bill to remove the charge of desertion from the record of James Hennessey, of Concord, DeKalb county, Ind.

William Waldorf Astor has made a contribution of $5,000 to the police pension fund for services rendered at the funeral of his wife in New York a few days since.

William B. Cecil died suddenly at his home in Boyle county, Ky., from an acute attack of Bright's disease. He was one of the largest land owners in central Kentucky.

The democratic caucus of the West Virginia legislature Wednesday night nominated Hon. Johnson L. Camden to succeed himself as U. S. senator. Two ballots were taken.

Pittsburgh capitalists are examining some fine springs near Mansfield, O., with the intention of locating a large artificial ice plant there to supply the Pittsburgh market.

Peru, Ind., intends to enforce the law in the future, so far as saloons and gambling are concerned. This was decided upon at a mass meeting of citizens Thursday night.

William A. Beach, another of the men charged with the theft of 70,000 postage stamps from the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, was found guilty, with a recommendation to mercy.

Joseph Shoret, a half-breed who was born two years before the United States constitution was adopted, is dead at Fond du Lac, Minn. Shoret was born on Leech lake, 110 years ago, when the Indians had complete control.

Edward Slich, the baseball player, who last appeared with the Brooklyn team, died in St. Louis, Tuesday, and was buried there Wednesday. Deceased was married, but childless. His funeral was attended by ten league players residing there.

Fire Inspector Cowie, of Chicago, was held to the grand jury under $1,500 bond, and his co-conspirator, Chin Tin, under $500 bond. Cowie and Chin Tin were charged with conspiring to indict two Chinamen, Ah Hung and Hong Sing, for arson.

The Indiana encampment of the G. A. R. will be held at Muncie in March, at which time the question of introducing patriotic songs and patriotic history into the public schools will be considered. Terre Haute delegates will favor the proposition.

At Indianapolis, Ind., John McLaughlin, a car inspector employed by the Union Railway Co., was killed at the union station Thursday night. In making a coupling he was caught between the bumpers and crushed. He died in a few hours.

Joseph T. Lloyd, of East Orange, N. J., and James B. Hayes, Tarrytown, N. Y., as trustees of the second mortgage bondholders, have filed suit in the federal district court at Louisville, Ky., to have the Chesapeake & Ohio Southern railroad sold.

The Fidelity Trust Co., of Louisville, Ky., to Thursday appointed receiver of the W. C. Depauw Co., manufacturers of window glass in Alexandria, Ind., and New Albany. The plants are valued at $1,000,000, three times the indebtedness of the company.

Rev. Samuel Graves, D. D., late president of the Baptist seminary at Atlanta, Ga., for colored people, suddenly died in Grand Rapids, Mich., Thursday night. He was suffering from rheumatism, which finally attacked his heart. He was 73 years of age.

After a three hours' session and eight ballots in the republican senatorial caucus at Topeka, Kan., Wednesday night without a nomination, an adjournment was taken until Thursday night after a hot fight, in which the field was pitted against J. R. Burton.

R. L. McClure and L. H. Jenkins, two enterprising and charitable Bowling Green, Ky., men, have arranged to serve free soup to the poor of the city every day during the cold weather.

Wm. Taylor, an American, representing a machinery manufacturing establishment of Chicago, was killed at Jerez, Mexico, by an Englishman named Perkins. The two men had been drinking together.

Joe Nance was murdered at Camden, Ill. He was descending the steps from his room, when some one below shot him five times. He walked a block after being shot, and then fell dead. There is no clue to the murderer.

Banker John S. Beach was Friday granted a change of venue to Parke county, Ind., on the charge of embezzlement resulting out of the failure of the Peoria City bank.

At Louisville, Ind., a new species of fish in the shape of a "black throat" was discovered. The attacks of men on the river last night and at the city hall are being investigated.

The school children of the Teachers' Union at New York City, New York, are to have a "black throat" day, in which they will wear black clothing and have black faces painted on them.

The school children of the Teachers' Union at New York City, New York, are to have a "black throat" day, in which they will wear black clothing and have black faces painted on them.

The school children of the Teachers' Union at New York City, New York, are to have a "black throat" day, in which they will wear black clothing and have black faces painted on them.

The school children of the Teachers' Union at New York City, New York, are to have a "black throat" day, in which they will wear black clothing and have black faces painted on them.

The school children of the Teachers' Union at New York City, New York, are to have a "black throat" day, in which they will wear black clothing and have black faces painted on them.

The school children of the Teachers' Union at New York City, New York, are to have a "black throat" day, in which they will wear black clothing and have black faces painted on them.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Hawaiian Matters in the Senate—The Sherman Anti-Trust Law to Sugar Interest in Certain Instances Does Not Apply.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The interest felt in the Hawaiian question was shown by the large crowds that filled the senate galleries all day Monday in expectation of a lively debate on the subject of a warship at Honolulu. The public galleries were filled to overflowing, and the private galleries were occupied by many prominent people. Minister Thurston, of Hawaii, was in the diplomatic gallery with a friend from the island republic, and naturally was one of the most interested listeners.

Senator Lodge early in the day introduced a resolution on the Hawaiian subject, in which he expressed the gratification of the senate at the sending of a ship to Honolulu, and at the same time stating that a cable should be laid from San Francisco to Hawaii.

The resolution also expressed the sense of the senate that steps should be taken to look toward annexation. The resolution was heard before both Senators Blackburn and Vest objected to its consideration.

After the morning hour the democratic leaders decided that Senator Gray should defend the president and dismiss Senator Fry's resolution for sending a vessel to the islands, which was introduced on Saturday.

Fry's resolution was called up, and Senator Gray took the floor. He sneered at the insurrection, with its shedding of blood, as a small emette, beneath the dignity of the United States senate, and he deprecated the attention which had been paid to it.

He berated the newspapers for giving space to what he called a rambling account of a second-rate affair, not comparable for a moment in importance with the Brooklyn strike.

He lauded Minister Willis, sneered at Admiral Walker as an overzealous advocate of annexation and laid special stress upon the alleged declaration of President Dole to Mr. Willis that it was fortunate a national vessel was not in the harbor of Honolulu.

The supreme court Monday decided the case of the United States vs. The E. C. Knight Co. et al., denying the constitutionality and validity of the Sherman anti-trust law of 1890, as affecting the transfer of the stock, etc., of several refining companies to the sugar trust.

In both the lower courts the judgment was against the United States. The government sought to compel the return of the stock of the Knight Co. and several other refineries and sugar houses in Pennsylvania sold to the American Sugar Refining Co., known as the sugar trust, and the abrogation of the contract between them.

The opinion was delivered by Chief Justice Fuller and affirmed the judgment of the court below. The court said the contracts of sale were not in restriction of interstate or foreign commerce and did not come within the terms of the law. Justice Harlan announced a dissent.

Congressman Berry was the happiest man in Washington Monday night. It is all because the house after a long debate on the Chicago public building bill, passed a bill giving Newport, Ky., a building that will cost $75,000.

The Chicago bill passed, appropriating $1,000,000 for a new building, as did bills to erect public buildings in Brooklyn, Mass.; Paterson, N. J.; South Omaha, Neb.; Pottsville, Pa.; and Cumberland, Md.

THE RIVER DISASTER.

Alleged Now That Investigation Will Show That Tom Blair's Lynchers Were the Hired Assassins of a Prominent Politician.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 22.—There is no longer a doubt as to the seat of expected trouble on account of which the Lexington and Harrodsburg companies have been placed on their arms, with orders to be ready to move at any moment. It was learned Monday that Circuit Judge Cooper and County Judge O'ear of Montgomery county spent a part of Sunday here and apprised the authorities of trouble which is expected at Mt. Sterling at the opening of circuit court, when a rigid investigation into the lynching of Thomas Blair will be commenced. Investigation, it is said, will develop the fact that the lynchers were hired to do their work by a prominent politician of Montgomery county. The troops will probably be ordered to move Monday night.

THE RIVER DISASTER.

The Loss of Life Not as Large as at First Reported—The Number Placed at Five.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 22.—There is no additional news concerning the loss of life in the collision of the steamship, however, that four Negroes and one white man lost their lives, but their names will not be ascertained. The wonder is that more lives were not lost.

The fifteen passengers on board were saved, as were all the officers. Mr. Thomas Small, one of the local agents of the steamboat line, said Monday morning that James Zery, the steersman, who was reported drowned, arrived in the city Sunday night on the Tell City, and left Monday morning for Cincinnati on the O. & M. railroad. Mate Witherton, of the Tell City, though, says that if Zery came up on the boat, he did not make himself known.

Colombian Currency.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The United States of Colombia, which has long suffered from an irredeemable paper currency, has taken steps to gradually put its money on a silver basis. United States Minister McKinney has forwarded to the state department a synopsis of a law passed November 31 last by the Colombian congress, by which it is expected this object will be attained. The act provides for the use of such government funds as shall be on hand for the purchase and coinage of silver. The coins will not exceed fifty cents each in value.

Spaniards Want Protection.

BILBOA, Jan. 22.—At a meeting of manufacturers and workmen Sunday there was organized a Spanish producers' league. Speeches were made demanding protection for local industries. The resolutions adopted were forwarded to the government. A number of socialists caused disorder by attempting to storm the platform.

Volunteers for Hawaii.

SARASOTA LAKE, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Capt. William F. Mannix, Monday, issued an appeal for volunteers to go to Hawaii for the defense of the republic.

VESSEL SINKS.

Over Thirty-Five of Her Passengers and Crew Lost.

The Disaster Occurred at Wolf Creek, Thirty-Five Miles Above Hawesville, Ky.—After Sinking the Boat Broke in Two and the Top Part Floated Away.

HAWESVILLE, Jan. 21.—The great Cincinnati and New Orleans steamer State of Missouri went to the bottom of the Ohio at Wolf Creek, P. O., thirty-five miles above this city, at 6 o'clock Saturday night and forty people met death. The post office at Wolf Creek, is twenty-five miles from the railroad, and it was with great difficulty that your correspondent secured the facts that follow. There was no telegraphic connection to the scene of the disaster and no way could be found to reach there.

At 3 o'clock Sunday morning the rear end of the hull of the steamer was caught at Troy, Ind., seven miles below here, and thirty drowned mules securely tied to the guards, were found.

At Clarksport, Ky., C. C. Whitehead, an old flat-boat pilot, who was on the ill-fated Missouri, was seen by a reporter. Capt. Whitehead was injured and almost exhausted, but he undoubtedly was the hero of the disaster, and the following interview with him will prove interesting to thousands of people who had friends or relatives aboard. Capt. Whitehead said:

"We were coming down the river and having a good time. I was in the pilot house and was just starting down to supper. When I reached the cabin deck I noticed the boat heading too much toward the shore, as I thought, and I stopped to see what the matter was. At this time a Mr. Garland, of Cave-in-Rocks, Ill., came up, and I told him the situation. He said: 'I can't swim, how can I be saved?' I told him to catch a plank and jump when the boat struck."

"At that moment the pilot seemed to realize where he was and the steamer's bow began to turn about. He was about half a second too late. The bow missed the rock, but the stern struck and was completely torn off from the other part. Garland jumped and was the first man off the boat."

"When the shock came a brave Negro jumped ashore with a line and tied it, but the headway of the boat parted the line and she swung into the river. I saw the boat was sinking, and as there seemed to be no one in command, I helped lower the boats and helped all the lady passengers in, and all of them were saved. The steamer was then rocking and I went to the upper deck, expecting to stay there until help came."

"In less than four minutes the boat had gone down over her upper decks, and when she was knee deep in water I jumped and began swimming in the dark."

"A Negro who was frightened and fighting for life caught me by the hair for support, and I had a terrible struggle in the water, but finally fought him away and saw him go down to rise no more."

"Just as I reached shore I heard a loud report, saw a great flame and the cabin of the boat rose high in the air and then I knew that the boiler had burst. When I looked around I saw a yawl with people who had boarded it before I left the boat go down, and none of them were saved."

"Mr. Bush, from Barren Point, Ark., was my roommate. He had thirty-five mules on board which he was taking to his plantation. He was drowned, and so were all his mules. Second Clerk Charles Howard, of Paducah, Ky., was saved. Capt. Copley was saved, but the passengers were killed bitterly for not attempting to save the boat. There was a passenger en route to Cairo who was injured."

"Pell and son, of Newport, Ky., were the pilots, and both were saved. The young man was at the wheel and he said that his carelessness caused the trouble. One of the engineers was saved."

"The mate of the steamer, by fighting drowning men with an oar, managed to save every woman in the boat, and when he was waist deep in water he was almost dead. The boat was only eight minutes in sinking out of sight from the time she struck the rock."

"If there was a command given by anybody I did not hear it. One lady named Ogil of Philadelphia, got ashore by swimming on a Negro's back. I found when I got ashore a Negro hanging to a willow bush by his teeth dead. He had struggled long in the water, and died just when he was about saved."

"The first clerk of the boat is now at Altoon, Ind., inside. He was one of the few in the boat who seemed to try to do anything, and he was found half buried in the mud on the Indiana shore below the wreck. He had swam clear across the river, and it is thought his reason will never return."

A woman named Thompson, of Marlinton, O., was found at a Kentucky farmhouse unconscious, but she will recover.

Out of twenty-two passengers only nine were saved. There was a young married couple from Louisville whose names could not be learned. The husband swam ashore with his wife and they were saved. A man and wife from Philadelphia escaped, but the man lost his clothing and $4,000.

Train Robber Morganfield in Virginia.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Jan. 21.—Chas. A. Morganfield, the train robber, arrived here Saturday at 12:45 p. m. in charge of Sheriff C. L. Kennedy, Sup't. A. E. Estlin, of Pinkerton's agency, and Harry Murray, and one of the express messengers who was held up. Five hundred people were at the depot, and as Morganfield was taken off the car there were cries of "lynch him." This outcry was quickly stopped by the officers and the prisoner was driven rapidly to the jail. Morganfield kept his head covered from the depot to the jail.

An Amalgamated Strike.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 21.—A strike has been precipitated at the Tudor Iron works in East St. Louis by an attempt on the part of the management to replace the boss rollers, who have been paid from $12 to $15 a day, with men whose wages are not more than $3.50 per day. All the employees belonging to the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel workers have stopped work pending a settlement of the trouble and the mill is idle. About 350 men are affected. The management claim that with their newly invented rolls, skilled men are not necessary.

BOMBARD

Jap Ships Throwing Bombs at City of Teng-Chow.

The Japanese Effect a Landing at Ching—British and American Go From Chifu to Witness.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The Chief correspondent of the Central News agency, the Japanese began bombarding the city of Teng-Chow, on the extreme northern part of the promontory that juts out into the Yellow sea and forms the eastern portion of the province of Shantung. It is on the same coast with Chifu and Wei-Hai-Wei, and is west of them. The foreign warships that have gone from Chifu to witness the bombardment had to travel only about fifty miles to reach the city that the Japanese warships are now assailing. The city is situated on the Strait of Pe-Chi-Li, at the point where it begins to merge into the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li. It is a little west of south of Port Arthur, and only about seventy miles from there, so that the Japanese vessels issuing from the captured fort to the north had only a few hours' sailing before they reached the point of attack.

There was a time when Teng-Chow was a great commercial rival of Chifu. That was when the waters in the roadstead (for it can hardly be called a harbor) were very deep. The junks were able to push right up to the shore and unload their merchandise in the city. But the Hoang river has played the mischief with Teng-Chow. Since it left its old bed and made a new course for itself far to the north, it has been sifting its great loads of sediment far and wide over the bottom of the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li, and enormous quantities of it have been caught and deposited on that part of the coast that projects farthest to the north.

It is right here that Teng-Chow is situated; and so the sea bed in front of it has long been filling up with the yellow earth that "China's sorrow" has brought down to the sea. To-day small vessels are not able to approach the shore, and have to anchor far from it. About three or four miles from the shore, however, is a narrow channel between the city and the little island to the north, known as the Strait of Miao-Tao. The rapid currents here have kept the channel comparatively clear of the Hoang deposits and the water is about sixty feet deep.

This is the only possible position from which large warships might bombard the city, and it is from this point of vantage that the Japanese naval vessels are pouring their shot and shell into the big town.

Teng-Chow is not one of the ports opened to the world by treaty, but, through arrangements made by various powers, foreign trade has been permitted to some extent. This trade, however, has been growing less from year to year. This is the first time in many years that the Japanese have seriously attacked any point on the coast. Generations ago the people here were in mortal terror of the Japanese pirates.

The Times' correspondent at Tientsin confirms the report that the Japanese have made a landing at Yun-Ching. Forty Japanese ships passed Shantung promontory Sunday, he says. The British squadron has been cruising in the neighborhood of the landing place for a week.

ON HER WAY.

The Flagship Philadelphia Leaves San Francisco for Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—The flagship Philadelphia left here for Honolulu at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, and it is expected she will make the run to the islands in about six days.

The ocean steamer Australia was to have left for Honolulu Saturday, but her sailing has been postponed until 10 o'clock Monday morning. She will have a small passenger list, as some of those who decided to make the pleasant ocean voyage have decided that Hawaii is a good place to keep away from at present. The most conspicuous part of her cargo will be 2,000 stands of arms and about 75,000 rounds of ammunition that are being shipped to representatives of the government. The shipment will be stored in the hold, near the hatches, so it can be reached quickly and landed as soon as the steamer arrives at her destination.

Negroes Off for Mexico.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 21.—A big movement of Negroes from Alabama and Mississippi to Mexico is on. The Mexican Colonization Co. has opened headquarters here and promises the Negroes free transportation to the state of Durango, Mex., and corn and cotton lands to be cultivated for half the proceeds. The Negroes are taking to the scheme and already 300 families in Blount county have signed a contract to go. Two special trains will leave here in a few days for Mexico.

Only Gun Plant in the South.

MIDDLETOWN, Ky., Jan. 21.—Twenty thousand dollars' worth of new machinery has arrived from Boston for the plant which will soon start up. It is the only gun and ordnance plant in the south and employs 500 skilled workmen.

Arms for Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—The steamer Australia, which sailed Monday morning for Honolulu, will carry as part of her cargo 2,000 stands of arms and about 75,000 rounds of ammunition for the Hawaiian government.

Improved Facilities.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The Midland Railroad Co. ran a trial train to the Liverpool dock, where passengers from the United States are landed. The experiment was successful, and the direct transportation of passengers from the dock to London will soon be begun.

Rescued Lychners Held.

OHARA, Neb., Jan. 21.—The coroner's jury found that the body had been hanged, and that George William, Moses Elliott and George Ross, those now under arrest, had been guilty of the crime.

Except for a few shots fired at Chinese warships in the harbor of Wei-Hai-Wei early in the war, this is the first time in this war that an attack has been made upon any place on the mainland of China. Teng-Chow is a flourishing city of 250,000 inhabitants on the extreme northern part of the promontory that juts out into the Yellow sea and forms the eastern portion of the province of Shantung. It is on the same coast with Chifu and Wei-Hai-Wei, and is west of them. The foreign warships that have gone from Chifu to witness the bombardment had to travel only about fifty miles to reach the city that the Japanese warships are now assailing. The city is situated on the Strait of Pe-Chi-Li, at the point where it begins to merge into the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li. It is a little west of south of Port Arthur, and only about seventy miles from there, so that the Japanese vessels issuing from the captured fort to the north had only a few hours' sailing before they reached the point of attack.

There was a time when Teng-Chow was a great commercial rival of Chifu. That was when the waters in the roadstead (for it can hardly be called a harbor) were very deep. The junks were able to push right up to the shore and unload their merchandise in the city. But the Hoang river has played the mischief with Teng-Chow. Since it left its old bed and made a new course for itself far to the north, it has been sifting its great loads of sediment far and wide over the bottom of the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li, and enormous quantities of it have been caught and deposited on that part of the coast that projects farthest to the north.

It is right here that Teng-Chow is situated; and so the sea bed in front of it has long been filling up with the yellow earth that "China's sorrow" has brought down to the sea. To-day small vessels are not able to approach the shore, and have to anchor far from it. About three or four miles from the shore, however, is a narrow channel between the city and the little island to the north, known as the Strait of Miao-Tao. The rapid currents here have kept the channel comparatively clear of the Hoang deposits and the water is about sixty feet deep.

This is the only possible position from which large warships might bombard the city, and it is from this point of vantage that the Japanese naval vessels are pouring their shot and shell into the big town.

Teng-Chow is not one of the ports opened to the world by treaty, but, through arrangements made by various powers, foreign trade has been permitted to some extent. This trade, however, has been growing less from year to year. This is the first time in many years that the Japanese have seriously attacked any point on the coast. Generations ago the people here were in mortal terror of the Japanese pirates.

The Times' correspondent at Tientsin confirms the report that the Japanese have made a landing at Yun-Ching. Forty Japanese ships passed Shantung promontory Sunday, he says. The British squadron has been cruising in the neighborhood of the landing place for a week.

ON HER WAY.

The Flagship Philadelphia Leaves San Francisco for Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—The flagship Philadelphia left here for Honolulu at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, and it is expected she will make the run to the islands in about six days.

The ocean steamer Australia was to have left for Honolulu Saturday, but her sailing has been postponed until 10 o'clock Monday morning. She will have a small passenger list, as some of those who decided to make the pleasant ocean voyage have decided that Hawaii is a good place to keep away from at present. The most conspicuous part of her cargo will be 2,000 stands of arms and about 75,000 rounds of ammunition that are being shipped to representatives of the government. The shipment will be stored in the hold, near the hatches, so it can be reached quickly and landed as soon as the steamer arrives at her destination.

Negroes Off for Mexico.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 21.—A big movement of Negroes from Alabama and Mississippi to Mexico is on. The Mexican Colonization Co. has opened headquarters here and promises the Negroes free transportation to the state of Durango, Mex., and corn and cotton lands to be cultivated for half the proceeds. The Negroes are taking to the scheme and already 300 families in Blount county have signed a contract to go. Two special trains will leave here in a few days for Mexico.

Only Gun Plant in the South.

MIDDLETOWN, Ky., Jan. 21.—Twenty thousand dollars' worth of new machinery has arrived from Boston for the plant which will soon start up. It is the only gun and ordnance plant in the south and employs 500 skilled workmen.

Arms for Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—The steamer Australia, which sailed Monday morning for Honolulu, will carry as part of her cargo 2,000 stands of arms and about 75,000 rounds of ammunition for the Hawaiian government.

Improved Facilities.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The Midland Railroad Co. ran a trial train to the Liverpool dock, where passengers from the United States are landed. The experiment was successful, and the direct transportation of passengers from the dock to London will soon be begun.

Rescued Lychners Held.

OHARA, Neb., Jan. 21.—The coroner's jury found that the body had been hanged, and that George William, Moses Elliott and George Ross, those now under arrest, had been guilty of the crime.

Killed at Jellico.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., Jan. 21.—John McCarty, one of the best known citizens of Jellico, was killed Sunday by Joseph Bills, the son of a well known merchant. Three months ago McCarty shot and wounded the girl who is now Bill's wife. She was a Miss Delia Clayton.

Cuban Reforms.

MADRID, Jan. 21.—The chamber of deputies has finally adopted the modus vivendi with the United States. It is believed that the government proposals regarding reforms in Cuba and the tariff on cereals will be carried out.

Naval Bill to Be Favorably Reported.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The house committee on naval affairs, after a long session Friday, approved the recommendations of the sub-committee and decided to report to the house the bill providing for three more battle ships, twelve torpedo boats and an addition of 2,000 men to the navy.

Reprieved at the Last Moment.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 19.—Eddy Davis, colored, who was to have been hanged Friday, was reprieved till February 15, at the last moment Friday by the governor. Strong efforts to save his neck will be made.

Except for a few shots fired at Chinese warships in the harbor of Wei-Hai-Wei early in the war, this is the first time in this war that an attack has been made upon any place on the mainland of China. Teng-Chow is a flourishing city of 250,000 inhabitants on the extreme northern part of the promontory that juts out into the Yellow sea and forms the eastern portion of the province of Shantung. It is on the same coast with Chifu and Wei-Hai-Wei, and is west of them. The foreign warships that have gone from Chifu to witness the bombardment had to travel only about fifty miles to reach the city that the Japanese warships are now assailing. The city is situated on the Strait of Pe-Chi-Li, at the point where it begins to merge into the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li. It is a little west of south of Port Arthur, and only about seventy miles from there, so that the Japanese vessels issuing from the captured fort to the north had only a few hours' sailing before they reached the point of attack.

There was a time when Teng-Chow was a great commercial rival of Chifu. That was when the waters in the roadstead (for it can hardly be called a harbor) were very deep. The junks were able to push right up to the shore and unload their merchandise in the city. But the Hoang river has played the mischief with Teng-Chow. Since it left its old bed and made a new course for itself far to the north, it has been sifting its great loads of sediment far and wide over the bottom of the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li, and enormous quantities of it have been caught and deposited on that part of the coast that projects farthest to the north.

It is right here that Teng-Chow is situated; and so the sea bed in front of it has long been filling up with the yellow earth that "China's sorrow" has brought down to the sea. To-day small vessels are not able to approach the shore, and have to anchor far from it. About three or four miles from the shore, however, is a narrow channel between the city and the little island to the north, known as the Strait of Miao-Tao. The rapid currents here have kept the channel comparatively clear of the Hoang deposits and the water is about sixty feet deep.

This is the only possible position from which large warships might bombard the city, and it is from this point of vantage that the Japanese naval vessels are pouring their shot and shell into the big town.

Teng-Chow is not one of the ports opened to the world by treaty, but, through arrangements made by various powers, foreign trade has been permitted to some extent. This trade, however, has been growing less from year to year. This is the first time in many years that the Japanese have seriously attacked any point on the coast. Generations ago the people here were in mortal terror of the Japanese pirates.

The Times' correspondent at Tientsin confirms the report that the Japanese have made a landing at Yun-Ching. Forty Japanese ships passed Shantung promontory Sunday, he says. The British squadron has been cruising in the neighborhood of the landing place for a week.

SOAP

SOND'S BRANCH.

In a play with her little Mrs. Martela Roberts had the misfortune to get an eye poked out on Friday of last Jack and Charley Jones were do- Posum Trot Sunday.

William Chaffin's subscription school is a grand success. C. Car- ter, of Irad, and others from a dis- tance are in attendance.

Isaiah Jones is turning up the black soil preparatory to planting corn.

Married, on the 15th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, Miss Carrie Hughes and Mr. Ruben Curnutte, of Daniel's creek, this county, Rev. Wm. Bentley officiat- ing. All things were lovely and the goose hung high. A beautiful feast was spread to which the few invited guests did ample justice in appeasing a frenzied appetite. At early twilight the gathering crowd threatened approaching danger, or fun for the guttural sounds of horns and the jingle of merry bells awoke such vibrations as this vicinity never before knew. Round and round went the crowd with increasing racket until the bride and groom were compelled to show their lov- ing faces. But not having any treat prepared for the crowd the leader, an ex-justice of the peace, required them to show affect on by kissing each other publicly. They leave best wishes, as they are both worthy and deserving. We regret to lose the bride from among us, but it is her gain.

Miss Minerva Presley and Mr. John G. Diamond, of Smoky Val- ley, were married last week. Rev. Wm. Bentley officiated. May they live long and prosper.

Land Carter and Henry Jenkins shipped a nice lot of cattle to Cin- cinnati last week.

Miss Carrie Browning, the only belle that our immediate commu- nity has left, is spending a few days with relatives at Dyer bend.

Milt Diamond, of Deep Hole Branch, was here Monday on busi- ness.

COUNTRY GREENHORN.

SEE THE WORLD'S FAIR FOR FIF- TEEN CENTS.

Upon receipt of your address and fifteen cents in postage stamps, we will mail you pre-paid our Souvenir Portfolio of the World's Columbian Exposition, the regular price is Fifty cents, but as we want you to have one, we make the price nominal. You will find it a work of art and a thing to be prized. It contains full page views of the great build- ings, with descriptions of same, and is ex- ecuted in highest style of art. If not satisfied with it, after you get it, we will refund the stamps and let you keep the book. Address H. E. BUCKLEN & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Price's Cream Ointment Powder World's Fair Highest Award.

Notice.

To whom it may concern:—All parties who are entitled to the ben- efits of the pauper fund of Law- rence county, Ky., are hereby di- rected to report to the keeper of the infirmary as directed by law.

Done by order of the fiscal court, this seventh day of January, 1895.

A. T. WILBUR,
A. J. CONLEY,
H. B. HEWLETT,
DAVID BOGGS,
M. B. THOMPSON,
Members Fiscal Court.

At Cost:—A fine organ for sale at wholesale price. Apply at Con- ley's Jewelry Store.

Low Rate Mid-Winter Excur- sion to Cincinnati Wednes- day January 30th, via C. & O. R'y.

Tickets good going on regular trains No's. 17 and 15 leaving Cat- letsburg at 5:55 a. m., and 1:47 p. m., good returning on regular trains No's. 16 and 18, leaving Cincinnati 7:10 a. m., and 2:30 p. m., Thurs- day January 31st, and on train 16, leaving Cincinnati 7:40 a. m., Fri- day February 1st. Round trip only $2.00. Don't fail to go and visit the Queen City with her countless amusement resorts and numerous handsome theaters playing excel- lent attractions.

Tobacco Seed for Sale.

At Snyder Bros. store you can get first class tobacco seed, grown and put up by E. B. White. 4t

ADVERTISING Just means to the general public what conversa- tion does to your friends. And if you are mum with your friends they won't think much of you nor of what you have, simply because YOU ARE MUM

The Old Reliable

Headquarters for Flour

And other Groceries

THE CITY MARKETS .
BROUGHT TO YOUR DOORS!

FRESH FRUITS, OYSTERS, CELERY, ETC.

Clover Leaf Flour, 3.40

Golden Anchor, 3.20

P. H. VAUGHAN,

Louisia, Kentucky.

Cough leads to Consumption, Kemp Balsam stops the Cough at once.

Dr. Price's Cream Ointment Powder Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco

Lanes Medicine Moves the bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is nec- essary.

WEBBVILLE.

George Johns, of Huntington, W. Va., is here.

We noticed several of our people going to your place last week. Among the number were Judge Woods, S. B. Underwood, Mrs. E. H. D. Webb and others.

Last Saturday while the E. K. train was backing up from Willard it ran into a rock that had slid on the track, but only tore all the steps off of three coaches.

Dr. M. G. Watson has returned from Louisville. We are glad to welcome the doctor again in our midst.

A. J. Webb is shipping quite a lot of tanbark from this place to Louisville market.

J. E. Lang, well known stove man is spending a few days in the Queen City. When he returns he expects to open a full store at this place.

Mrs. J. W. Pennington has been ill for some time with fever, and we are glad to say that she is improv- ing.

G. H. Shortridge, of Fallsburg, spent a few days at this place last week.

D. M. Justice, of Ratcliff, was visiting his sister, Miss M. E. Jus- tice Sunday. BOB & DICK.

If you have a neighbor who does not take the NEWS recommend it to him (if you can conscientiously do so) and ask him to subscribe.

FOR SALE:—Saw mill, engine and boiler. Inquire of JAY H. NORTUP.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. M. Haghe's Louisa, Ky.

Col Coit, the Ohio militiaman, has been indicted for manslaughter because he prevented a lynching at Washington C. H. Ohio. To be consistent, the Ontonans should in- dict Judge Buchwalter, on his own confession that he has prevented a lynching in Kentucky.—Courier Journal.

Louisia Normal Institute
LOUISIA, KENTUCKY.

Regular term opens February 1, 1895.

Primary, Preparatory, Teachers', Commercial, Sci- entific, Drawing and Musical Courses.

Students may enter at any time and are at perfect liberty to choose their own studies. Those who are deficient in any branch will be given private instruction free. Board and Tuition cheap. Send for cata- logue. U. S. G. ANDERSON, Principal.

Golden Rule.

We are overstocked with a big stock of Mens, Ladies and Chil- drens Underware.

In order to make this stock smaller we offer you big bargains, and here is reduced prices:

Mens shirt and drawers, reduced price	19c	regular price, 30c
Mens " " " " " "	39c	" " 50c
Mens " " all wool, " "	69c	" " $1.00
Ladies shirt and pants, cotton ribbed,	19c	" " 25c
Ladies shirt cotton pants, merino, extra quality, 33c	"	" 50c
Ladies all wool red flannel, best quality, 75c	"	" $1.25

Children's underwear at reduced prices. We also reduce everything in the house at low prices, so dont miss these bargains for they are wonderful. Remember this is only given by

LEVINE & BROWN,
Enterprise Block, Louisa, Ky.

Quarterly Report

Of the Bank of Louisa on the Morning of Dec. 31, 1894.

Loans and discounts, $42,576.17	Capital stock paid in cash, $20,000.00
Overdrafts, secured, 50.31	Surplus fund, 7,200.00
Overdrafts, unsecured, 95.84	Undivided profits, 65.83
Due from National Banks, 4,587.07	Due Depositors, 28,837.41
Banking house and lot, 5,809.00	Due National Banks, 1,015.61
Specie, $5,052.10
Currency, 7,178.00
Exchanges, 19.44	12,249.54
For clearings, 19.44
Other items carried as cash, 38.67
Furniture and fixtures, 1,712.25
	67,118.85

STATE OF KENTUCKY, COUNTY OF LAWRENCE: G. R. Vinson, cashier of Bank of Louisa, a Bank located and doing business in the town of Louisa, in said county, being duly sworn, says that the foregoing Report is in all respects a true statement of the condition of the said Bank, at the close of business on the 31st day of December, 1894, to the best of his knowledge and belief; and further says that the business of said Bank has been transacted at the location named, and not elsewhere; and that the above report is made in compliance with an official notice received from the Secretary of State designating the 31st day of December, 1894, as the day on which such report shall be made.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by G. R. Vinson, the 31 day of January, 1895. P. H. VAUGHAN, Notary Public.

G. R. VINSON, Cashier.
A. J. GARRER, Director.
J. W. M. STEWART, Director.
D. J. BURCHETT, Director.

ELECTROPOISE

ES DISEASE.

Electropoise gave me com- plete relief from excruciating pain in the back. I also find it useful for treating children for numerous ailments.—C. T. Aden, with Bridgford & Co., Louisville, Ky.

Mr. G. W. Flint, of Skylight, Ky., says: "I suffered for years with my kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and enlargement of the prostate gland. After a short trial of the Electropoise I am entirely relieved, and feel twenty years younger."

I have derived more benefit from the use of Electropoise than from all other remedies combined. I think it the grandest invention of the age. It can not be praised too highly.—Mrs. M. E. Gorman, Sad-leville, Ky., August 20.

John H. Davis, Esq., of Bar- boursville, Ky.: "The Electropoise is the best all-round doctor I know of. My wife suffered from effects of la grippe for several years; also a complication of other ailments. Now she is entirely well. Indiges- tion bothered me a great deal am now well. One of my neighbors is using it for lung trouble, and reports improvement."

As a curative agent the Electro- poise can not be equaled. Nearly 1,000 have been put out from this office in the last three months.

Electropoise put on trial for four months for $10. Send for valuable book free.

DUBOIS & WEBB,
509 North Avenue, Louisville, Ky.

York State apples, the best three cans for a quarter at Vaughan's.

Before buying a cloak be sure to get the latest style. We have them from $2.50 up.

G. W. GUNNELL.

AGENTS
Make $ Selling Mark
Twin's latest and best
PUDD'NHEAD
WILSON.

Everybody wants this new book by America's Greatest Humorist. Best thing for years. A great chance to make big money. Agents are making from $5 to $15 a day. Send for circulars and terms Without Delay, or some one else will reap this rich harvest. Sold only by subscrip- tion, and exclusive territory given each agent. Mention paper. Address The S. G. Hamilton Pub. Co., 366 The Arcade, Cleveland, Ohio.

PATENT
CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS
COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? I can, answer and an honest opinion, with U. S. & C. P. who have had nearly thirty years' experience in the patent business. Complete, confidential, confidential, confidential information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. A number of most important and valuable books sent free.

Write to: W. L. LARSON, Patent and Copyright Attorney, 1010 Broadway, New York City. Important notice in the Scientific American. These are brought into view before the public and sent to the inventor. This would present unusual money, elegantly illustrated, has for its object the education of our countrymen in the patent business, 25 cents. Sample copy sent free. Second Edition, new, 50 cents. Address: W. L. LARSON, Patent and Copyright Attorney, 1010 Broadway, New York City.

MUNN & CO., New York, 261

Chicago and get a sample box of Dr. K. NewLife Pills Free, as well as a Guide to Health and Household Instructions Free. All of which is guaranteed to do good and cost you nothing at A. M. Hudson Drugstore.

Harper's Bazar, " "
Harper's Young People, " "
Postage Free to all subscribers in the U. S. States, Canada, and Mexico.
Address, HARPER & BROTHERS,
P. O. Box 959, N. Y.

A SURE AND CERTAIN CURE
known for 15 years as the
BEST REMEDY FOR PILES
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS
Prepared by RICHARDSON MED. CO., ST. LOUIS

GEORGE STINSON & CO.
Box 488,
PORTLAND, MAINE

WARRANTED.

For BORDERS & STEWART

Weekly Courier-Journal
Will be sent one year to any address or $1.75. Address: Big SANDY News